

HOW TO TALK TO A KID ABOUT YOUR EXPERIENCE WITH A DISABILITY OR CONDITION

Fill in the blanks to tell your story.

I know someone named _____. They have a disability called _____, which means they might need _____ to help them do things like _____.

person's name
name of disability or condition tool, device, or support activity or task

Even though they do some things differently, they are really good at _____ and love to _____. I think that's pretty _____!

activity or interest
fun thing they enjoy
[positive adjective]

Sometimes people think being different is a bad thing, but I think differences make us _____, and help us learn _____.

positive adjective
something you have or could learned from someone with a disability

If someone doesn't understand a disability, I can explain by saying, _____. And if someone is being unkind, I can _____.

kind explanation in kid words action you could take to stand up or help

Everyone deserves to be included, whether they use _____ or _____ learn differently. The best way to be a good friend is to _____ and _____.

mobility aid, communication tool, etc.
kind behavior or attitude
another inclusive action

I'm glad everyone's different — that's what makes the world an interesting and caring place!

Learn more here or visit TreatPeopleLikePeople.org