

FLIP CARDS

Print this PDF with your printer set to “print both sides.”
Cut the cards along the dotted lines to separate them.

How to play

Read the answer on the front and let the kids come up with the question—just like in the gameshow, Jeopardy. Use the kids’ excitement to spark a conversation about disabilities, diversity, and inclusion.

This tool helps people who cannot walk get around more easily.

This sense is affected when someone is blind.

This word means making sure everyone gets to join in, feel safe, and be treated kindly—no matter what they look like, how they talk, or what they can or can’t do.

You’re showing this when you treat people, their feelings, ideas, and personal space in a kind, caring, accepting way.

When people come from many backgrounds and have different abilities.

You’re showing this when you help a classmate who has trouble with certain tasks.

The Office of the Ombudsman for Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities with assistance from the Governor's Council on Developmental Disabilities initiated this public awareness campaign designed to educate people with disabilities and their families and guardians, and the general public on how to identify, report and prevent abuse of people with disabilities. The campaign highlights the value and dignity of each person living with a disability. We thank them all for their generosity of time spent to make this campaign a reality.
